

Marty Katz
Producer

Marty Katz has been involved in the motion picture and television industries for over thirty years and has served in a variety of producing and executive positions in charge of production. In October 1992, following an eight year association with The Walt Disney Studios that included the position as Executive Vice President, Motion Pictures and Television Production, he formed his own independent production banner, Marty Katz Productions, which was based at Disney and had an exclusive overall arrangement with the studio. Under his banner, Mr. Katz produced the comedy hits "MAN OF THE HOUSE," starring Chevy Chase and Jonathan Taylor Thomas, and "MR. WRONG," starring Ellen DeGeneres and Bill Pullman. Concurrently with this exclusive production agreement with Disney, he continued to serve the studio as a Production Consultant in connection with various film and television projects, as well as new technology issues.

Mr. Katz joined The Walt Disney Studios in 1985 as Senior Vice President, Motion Picture and Television Production, and in that role was responsible for overseeing all aspects of physical production (including post production) for the studio's various production banners -- Disney, Touchstone and Hollywood Pictures; all projects and series for Walt Disney Television; as well as productions for the Theme Parks and Feature Animation, among them the feature hits "DOWN AND OUT IN BEVERLY HILLS," "OUTRAGEOUS FORTUNE," "GOOD MORNING, VIETNAM," "THREE MEN AND A BABY," "THE COLOR OF MONEY," "HONEY, I SHRUNK THE KIDS," "DEAD POETS' SOCIETY," "DICK TRACY," "WHO FRAMED ROGER RABBIT," "PRETTY WOMAN," "FATHER OF THE BRIDE," "THE ROCKETEER," "THE LITTLE MERMAID "THE NIGHTMARE BEFORE CHRISTMAS," and "NEW YORK STORIES." Three years later, he was promoted to the post of Executive Vice President and continued to oversee the physical production side of the studio's rapidly expanding motion picture and television slate.

Prior to joining Disney, Mr. Katz produced various television and theatrical films including Geffen/Warner Bros.' "LOST IN AMERICA," (1985) and Fox's "HEART

LIKE A WHEEL," (1983). From 1978 to 1980, he was a Producer and Production Consultant for Paramount Pictures' Television division. For two years before that, he was Executive Vice President of Production for Quinn Martin Productions.

Upon his return from Vietnam in 1969, where he served as a US Army 1st Lieutenant Combat Pictorial Unit Director, Mr. Katz began his industry career working for Roger Corman's New World Pictures as a Production Manager/Associate Producer, on various low budget films. In 1971 he became Director of Film Production for ABC Circle Films, during the Barry Diller/Michael Eisner years. During his five year association with that organization, he supervised production for more than 50 television movies (including "Eleanor and Franklin" and "Love Among The Ruins") that garnered a total of 25 Emmy Awards.

In 1996, Marty Katz Productions began operating independently with offices in Santa Monica. In 1997 Marty Katz was Twentieth Century Fox's Supervising Producer on James Cameron's "TITANIC". He produced "REINDEER GAMES," directed by John Frankenheimer, and starring Ben Affleck, Charlize Theron, and Gary Sinise. He also produced "IMPOSTOR," directed by Gary Fleder, and starring Gary Sinise and Madeline Stowe.

In 2001, he produced "THE FOUR FEATHERS," directed by Shekhar Kapur and starring Heath Ledger, Kate Hudson, and Wes Bentley. He recently produced "THE GREAT RAID," an epic World War II, true life action drama about the liberation of American Survivors of the Bataan Death March from the Japanese Cabanatuan POW Camp in the Philippines in 1945. The film was directed by John Dahl ("THE LAST SEDUCTION," "ROUNDERS"), and stars Benjamin Bratt, James Franco, Connie Nielsen, and Joe Fiennes for Miramax films.

Currently, Marty Katz has several projects in development and is one of the Producers of the recently released "LOVE RANCH," directed by Taylor Hackford ("RAY," "OFFICER AND A GENTLEMAN," "DEVIL'S ADVOCATE"), and starring Helen Mirren, Joe Pesci and Gina Gershon.
